Our Call

Next week highlighted by HONA beginning to trade on Monday (see our Investor Day preview HONA Investor Day Preview).

Up Next: HONA begins trading Monday June 29th.

Global flight schedules: June schedules now indicate -1.5% global flight hours (vs. +3-4% a few weeks ago), while July +1% (vs. +3-4%) and August +2% (vs. +3-4%). Middle East (~4% of total global flights) seen 19% lower YoY in June and 6% lower in July and August.

Aero: We think aero outperforms on strong relative EPS growth that more than offsets potential valuation downside. Within aero aftermarket, we are selective, favoring RR/WWD. Within aero OE, we are favorable on BA on its FCF potential, ATI on pricing/margin upside, and HXL on widebody leverage.

Defense: Defense has upside to growth expectations on large outlays gap relative to budget, while valuation at ~10% discount is increasingly attractive. Large caps face heightened competition along with increased CAPX demands that could negatively affect FCF and shareholder returns. NOC has invested ahead of need relative to peers and, we think, outgrows. GD has upside on shipbuilding and refreshed bizjet product lineup.

Important Disclosure for U.S. Clients

This report was prepared by Wells Fargo Securities Global Research Department ("WFS Research") personnel associated with Wells Fargo Securities, LLC ("Wells Fargo Securities").

WFS Research may, from time to time, provide clients with short-term trading views in its research reports regarding subject companies on which Wells Fargo Securities currently has equity research coverage. A short-term trading view offers a view on how the market price of a subject company's common equity may trend in absolute terms during the 30 days following the date of the short-term trading view. A short-term trading view on a subject company's common equity does not impact our fundamental investment rating or price target for that company, which reflect our view of how the subject company's common equity may perform over a one-year period. A short-term trading view may reach a different conclusion than the firm's fundamental investment rating and price target for a subject company and, therefore, short-term trading views could result in short-term price movements that are contrary to our fundamental investment rating and price target. Short-term trading views are not ratings and the firm does not intend, nor undertakes any obligation, to maintain, update or close out short-term trading views. Short-term trading views may not be suitable for all investors and have not been tailored to individual investor circumstances and objectives, and investors should make their own independent decisions regarding any short-term trading views discussed in WFS Research reports.
